UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CIVIL MINUTES - GENERAL

| Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly  | Case No.  | CV08-8191-AHM (RZx)                    |                                     |                                   | Date | January 5, 2009 |  |
|---|---|--|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------|-----------------|--|
| Stephen Montes  Cindy Nirenberg  Deputy Clerk  Court Reporter / Recorder  Tape No.  Attorneys Present for Plaintiffs:  Brent H. Blakely Cindy Chan  Proceedings:  HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08].  Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.  1             | Title   | COACH, INC. v. ABNER'S FASHION, et al. |                                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
| Stephen Montes  Cindy Nirenberg  Deputy Clerk  Court Reporter / Recorder  Tape No.  Attorneys Present for Plaintiffs:  Brent H. Blakely Cindy Chan  Proceedings:  HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08].  Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.  1             |   |  |                                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
| Deputy Clerk Court Reporter / Recorder Tape No.  Attorneys Present for Plaintiffs: Attorneys Present for Defendants:  Brent H. Blakely Mac E. Nehoray Cindy Chan  Proceedings: HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08]  Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.  : |   |  | A. HOWARD MATZ, U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE |                                   |      |                 |  |
| Attorneys Present for Plaintiffs:  Brent H. Blakely Cindy Chan  Proceedings:  HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08]  Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.   | Stephen Montes  |  | Cindy Nirenberg                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
| Brent H. Blakely Cindy Chan  Proceedings: HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08]  Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.   | Deputy Clerk  |  |                                     | Court Reporter / Recorder         |      | Tape No.        |  |
| Cindy Chan  Proceedings:  HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08].  Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.  | Attorneys Present fo  |  | nt for Plaintiffs:                  | Attorneys Present for Defendants: |      |                 |  |
| Cause called; appearances made.  After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.   | •   |  | Mac E. Nehoray                      |                                   |      |                 |  |
| After questioning counsel and for reasons and findings stated on the record, the Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.  | Proceedings: HEARING ON ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION [Filed 12/18/08]  |  |                                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
| Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders the seized merchandise to be returned by not later than January 14, 2009.  Court admonishes plaintiff's counsel for seizing merchandise not expressly authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.   | Cause called; appearances made.   |  |                                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
| authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to submit a proposed order.  :   | Court extends the preliminary injunction against the investigative defendants but orders  |  |                                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
|   | authorized in the Court's prior order. All unauthorized merchandise must be returned to the victims by not later than noon, Wednesday, January 7, 2009. Plaintiff is ordered to |  |                                     |                                   |      |                 |  |
| Initials of Preparer SMO  |   |  |                                     |                                   |      | : 31            |  |
|   |   |  |                                     | Initials of Preparer              |      | SMO             |  |